SOCIAL GROUPS

The primary purpose of these groups is to develop friendships.

1. Tuesday Fellowship group

Meets fortnightly in various peoples homes. Each evening has a different theme which is introduced by one of the group such as “Nursing in the fifties”, “Life in Hong Kong” and “Making cards”. The purpose of the group is to build friendship, share interest and experiences, and learn from each other.

2. Men’s Supper

This social group is open to all men and meets on the 1st Friday of the month in The Bear pub at 8pm. After a drink at the bar it adjourns to a dining room for a meal together. The cost for the drinks and food is shared equally among all who come and is usually around £11 per head. There is no fixed agenda – it is a time to build friendship and to discuss anything of mutual interest.

3. Girls’ Night out

This is the female equivalent of the Men’s Supper! It also meets monthly for a meal together but it meets in different homes and the day of the week varies. Usually someone introduces a faith related topic for discussion after the meal.

HOME GROUPS FOR STUDY, FELLOWSHIP AND PRAYER

The following is a list of Home Groups. The groups vary in their style and in what they do but have in common a desire to be places where participants can learn from and encourage each other in their faith in a mutually supportive environment. As well as study there will be time for sharing of news and prayer. Many of them are ecumenical with members from other than the Anglican churches. If you are interested in joining a particular group then there is a contact person for each group.
